

July 2016

Dear Friends and Supporters,

President Barack Obama is a lame duck president. However, this is not stopping him from inflicting as much damage on the American way of life as possible before he leaves office at the end of the year. We have seen his continued efforts to change America. He has been successful through his unconstitutional use of “executive orders” to accomplish his goals. By this I mean, he usurps the authority of Congress and does what he personally believes is best. Congress is to carry out the will of the people as they make it known to their elected senators and representatives.

In this month’s Educational Update, we address the Obama Administration’s latest efforts at sexual perversion, that is, the rights of transgender persons to use bathrooms and locker rooms of their personal choice, regardless of their actual physical gender. This cycle of events would not be happening, except for the unnatural obsession Obama has with perverse and abnormal sex.

This obsession continued even in spite of the attack at a gay nightclub in Orlando by a radical Islamic terrorist. With volumes of information continuing to accumulate on the Islamic terrorist connection, Obama still refuses to label it as such. Yet, at the same time, he reaches out to the LGBTQ community, as if the gays in the nightclub were attacked by ordinary Americans. Commentator Brit Hume clearly summed it up when he explained that Islam treats homosexuality as a capital offense in many of the Middle Eastern countries. The attack was related to Islamic theology and terror, not Christian or Jewish Americans’ beliefs that homosexuality is a sin.

Rather than finally recognizing the reality of Islamic terrorism coming to America, Obama preached gun control and tolerance. Make no mistake, the Pulse nightclub tragedy will become the new Stonewall Inn (Google it) of the gay rights movement. We will see continued attacks on and diminution of religious freedom because we cannot accept the sins of perverse sex.

Of course, the story in Orlando will continue to develop. We will have more facts. We do not know where it will lead. One thing we are afraid of is that the Obama Administration will continue to tolerate Islamic terrorism, while advocating gay rights as “civil rights.” Did you notice in Obama’s first address after the tragedy his reference to gay rights as being “civil rights”: “The place . . . is more than a nightclub – it is a place . . . to advocate for their civil rights.” Make a note of that and the implications mentioned in this month’s Educational Update.

Thank you for your prayers and financial support of SLI. Hopefully, the political races will dial back a bit and we can have a nice summer.

Yours very truly,

A. Eric Johnston
